

CURRICULUM VITAE FOR

Fr. Reed K. Merino

EDUCATION:

1958-1961 BScience in Nautical Science & Marine Engineering, Dean's List, Merchant Marine Academy, Kings Point, New York.

1961-1964 MArts in History and minors in psychology, literature and religion. (Magna Cum Laude), Lycoming College, a Methodist college in Williamsport, Pennsylvania.

1964-1968 MDivinity with Honors, Philadelphia Divinity School, which led to ordination as Deacon and Priest in the ECUSA.

1969-1971 PhD program at Fordham University, Bronx, N.Y., initially in Patristics and later in the History of Religions program; finished the coursework with an A (Dean's List).

1980-1980 Control Data Institute, San Francisco, graduated from program in Computer Programming and Operations

MINISTRY:

1968-1979 Episcopal priest ministry in ECUSA; regular preaching, teaching, counseling and administrative duties; rector of St. Mary's, Winnemucca, Nevada as well as vicar of the Episcopal mission in Battle Mountain.

1987-1997 attended St. John's Anglican Church, Huntington Valley, PA periodically and member of Towamencin Mennonite Church (Towamencin, PA).

1998-2001 accepted in the Charismatic Episcopal Church as a priest and ministered for two years at Christ the King Church in Tullytown, PA.

2002-2004 member of St. Michael the Archangel, a traditional Anglican Church in Philadelphia.

2004-present mixing time and participation between Eucharist-centered traditional or conservative Anglican congregations with a more intimate and Biblically-centered house church. The Anglican churches were St. Johns, Norristown, and Church of the Good Shepherd, Rosemont.

SOFTWARE DEVELOPMENT CONSULTING:

1980-2007 Career as a computer software developer.

2007-2016 retired